

Title IX Request for Academic Accommodation Pregnancy

Under Title IX, it is illegal for schools to exclude a pregnant student from participating in any part of an educational program. Wilson Community College encourages all pregnant students to continue their education. If you are pregnant and require accommodations, please have your medical practitioner write a note on their letterhead listing accommodations the medical practitioner deems medically necessary. If you prefer, you may have your medical practitioner complete this form in place of a written statement.

Proper documentation includes the following:

- Documentation needs to be on medical practitioner's letterhead and have a medical diagnosis of pregnancy.
- Documentation must be signed by the medical practitioner.
- Documentation needs to include a due date.
- Documentation needs to note if the pregnancy is a high-risk pregnancy.

Student Name: _____ Student ID Number: _____

Medically Necessary Accommodations:

Is this pregnancy classified in the category of a high-risk pregnancy: Yes No

Patient's Due Date: _____

Medical Practitioner's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Please return completed Title IX Request for Academic Accommodation or medical practitioner's documentation to:

Jesse Sykes, Special Populations Counselor
Wilson Community College
PO Box 4305
Wilson, NC 27893